

The Southport Snapshot

November 2023

Last Month in Southport

November was a warm and busy start to winter in Southport. Some of the highlights from November were:

- Eagles Wings Flight School was awarded the Award of Excellence in Training at the Manitoba Aerospace All-Stars Awards Gala. Southport is proud to be home to Eagles Wings by offering space in Hangar 5 throughout the summer months. Congratulations to Josh and Ashley Cordery and the entire Eagles Wings team!
- Southport sponsored the Outstanding Non-for-Profit Business Award at the Portage la Prairie & District Best Business Awards! Congratulations to all award recipients, especially to PCI's Apprentice Program on being named the 2023 Outstanding Not-for-Profit of the Year, which was the award sponsored and presented by Southport.
- Southport sponsored and attended the Portage Terriers fundraising dinner. Southport is a proud sponsor and home dry-land training facility for the Portage Terriers.
- Southport and RRC Polytech - Stevenson Campus Aviation & Aerospace partnered together to exhibit at the Annual Air Transportation Association of Canada (ATAC) Conference in Montreal.
- Southport board member, Julene Toews-Dewis, attended the Remembrance Day service at Stride place and laid a wreath for Remembrance Day. Southport honours and remembers those who have and continue to sacrifice to serve the Country.
- KF Aero Landowner Day was on Friday, November 10th. Southport was happy to support this important day to thank the landowners who are impacted by military flight training.
- Southport is a proud sponsor of Operation Red Nose. Remember this holiday season not to drink and drive. Every weekend beginning November 24th until New Year's Eve, call and they'll drive you and your vehicle home safely. Call 204.239.5570.

Member of the Month

Congratulations to our November Member of the Month, Curran Ice - member of three years!

He was motivated to join Central Plains RecPlex to put on weight and gain muscle. Curran worked hard and pushed himself to increase his weight by 50 pounds! Currently, he is striving to increase by another 20 pounds.

Way to go Curran, for your success using the Central Plains RecPlex facility! If you have a nomination for a Member of the Month, please let us know by email, social media, or in person.

Grab Your Bow & Arrow

Do you love archery but have nowhere to practice? The Central Plains RecPlex has a great space (Multipurpose Room 2) to practice your archery skills. Bring your own equipment and rent the space for $23/hour.
